Grubs are 2-3' below the surface and return to their protective winter cell.

Moderate Control Application of Treatment

Optimum Control Application of Treatment
End of July

Grubs are 2-3' below the surface in their protective winter cell

Grubs rise to the surface and feed on grass & roots

The grub transforms and the pupa forms

The Chafer Beetle emerges and starts eating your lawn and garden

Chafer beetle lays eggs

Eggs hatch and grubs feed on grass & roots

For more great articles and info on Terraseeding®, soil, and much visit:
www.DENBOW.com